1932 AND 1943.

INTERIM PRESERVATION ORDER NO. 2.

Brighton Wood, Redding Wood and Hawkcliff Wood, Steeton.

SKIPTON RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1932 AND 1943.

INTERIM PRESERVATION ORDER NO. 2.

WHEREAS it appears to us the Rural District Council for the Rural District of Skipton in the West Riding of Yorkshire (hereinafter called "the Council") being the Interim Development Authority for the purposes of the above Acts in respect of the said District that it is expedient having regard to the provisions proposed to be inserted in the Planning Scheme for the said Rural District of Skipton in accordance with Section 46 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1932, to make provision as hereinafter mentioned for the preservation of trees during the period pending the coming into operation of the provisions in such Scheme.

NOW THEREFORE in pursuance of the powers contained in Section 8 of the Town and Country Planning (Interim Development) Act, 1943, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf we the Council do ORDER as follows, namely:-

- (1) That until such time as a Planning Scheme for the said Rural District of Skipton comes into operation and subject to the exemptions specified in the Second Schedule hereto no person (which expression shall in this Order include any body or firm whether corporate or otherwise) shall except with the consent of the Council cut down, top, lop or wilfully destroy or permit the cutting down, topping, lopping or wilful destruction of any of the trees referred to in the first schedule hereto and more particularly within the areas shewn coloured red, orange and green on the plan hereunto annexed now growing upon land in the said Rural District of Skipton within the scope of the said plan.
- (2) Any application for consent of the Council made in pursuance of paragraph (1) hereof shall be in writing and shall contain such particulars and shall be accompanied by such plans as the Council may require and in considering any such application the Council shall be empowered to grant the same either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as they may think fit to impose or may refuse the same PROVIDED THAT (a) any person who is aggrieved by the refusal of any consent under this order or by any condition imposed upon the grant of any such consent may appeal to the Minister of Town and Country Planning (hereinafter called "the Minister") (b) if upon the refusal of any consent under this Order or upon the Council granting any such consent subject to conditions any person proves that he has thereby suffered damage or incurred expense or is likely to suffer damage or incur expense, the Council may make to such person a contribution towards the damage or expense so suffered or incurred or likely to be suffered or incurred.
- (3) Any person contravening this Order shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Fifty Pounds and in the case of a continuing offence shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Forty Shillings for every day on which the offence continues after conviction.
- (4) This Order shall take effect from the date on which it is approved by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 8 of the Town and Country Planning (Interim Development) Act, 1943.
