TREE PRESERVATION ORDER 2009

CITY OF BRADFORD METROPOLITAN DISTRICT COUNCIL

The City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Sections 198, 201 and 203 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 hereby make the following Order:-

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the land at The Old Coach House, High House Mews, Cross End Fold, Addingham Tree Preservation Order 2009.

Interpretation

2. In this Order "the authority" means the City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council and unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in this Order to a numbered Section is a reference to the Section so numbered in the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

Application of Section 201

3. The authority hereby direct that Section 201 (provisional tree preservation orders) shall apply to this Order and, accordingly, this Order shall take effect provisionally on 24 February 2009.

Prohibited acts in relation to trees

4. Without prejudice to Sub-Sections (6) and (7) of Section 198 (power to make tree preservation orders) and Sub-Section (1) of Section 200 (orders affecting land where Forestry Commissioners interested)], and Subject to article 5, no person shall:-
 - (a) cut down top, lop, uproot, wilfully damage or wilfully destroy; or
 - (b) cause or permit the cutting down, topping, lopping, uprooting, wilful damage or wilful destruction of any tree specified in Schedule 1 to this Order or comprised in a group of trees or in a woodland so specified, except with the consent of the authority and, where such consent is given Subject to conditions, in accordance with those conditions.

Exemptions

5. (1) Nothing in article 4 shall prevent:-
- (a) the cutting down, topping, lopping or uprooting of a tree by or at the request of a statutory undertaker, where the land on which the tree is situated is operational land of the statutory undertaker and the work is necessary:-
 - (i) in the interests of the safe operation of the undertaking;
 - (ii) in connection with the inspection, repair or renewal of any sewers, mains, pipes, cables or other apparatus of the statutory undertaker; or
 - (iii) to enable the statutory undertaker to carry out development permitted by or under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995;
 - (aa) the cutting down, topping, lopping or uprooting of a tree where that work is required to enable the implementation of an order made or confirmed under paragraph 8(1) or paragraph 15(1) of Schedule 1 to the Highways Act 1980 (procedures for making or confirming certain orders and schemes);
 - (ab) the cutting down, topping, lopping or uprooting of a tree where that work is urgently necessary for national security purposes;
 - (b) the cutting down, topping, lopping or uprooting of a tree cultivated for the production of fruit in the course of a business or trade where such work is in the interests of that business or trade;
 - (c) the pruning, in accordance with good horticultural practice, of any tree cultivated for the production of fruit;
 - (d) the cutting down, topping, lopping or uprooting of a tree where that work is required to enable a person to implement a planning permission (other than an outline planning permission or, without prejudice to paragraph (a)(iii), a permission granted by or under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995) granted on an application under Part

III of the Act, or deemed to have been granted (whether for the purposes of that Part or otherwise);

- (e) the cutting down, topping, lopping or uprooting of a tree by or at the request of the Environment Agency to enable the Agency to carry out development permitted by or under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995;
 - (f) the cutting down, topping, lopping or uprooting of a tree by or at the request of a drainage body where that tree interferes, or is likely to interfere, with the exercise of any of the functions of that body in relation to the maintenance, improvement or construction of watercourses or of drainage works, and for this purpose "drainage body" and "drainage" have the same meanings as in the Land Drainage Act 1991; or
 - (g) without prejudice to Section 198 (6)(b), the felling or lopping of a tree or the cutting back of its roots by or at the request of, or in accordance with a notice served by, a licence holder under paragraph 9 of Schedule 4 to the Electricity Act 1989.
- (2) In paragraph (1) "statutory undertaker" means any of the following:-
- (a) a person Authorised by the an enactment to carry on any railway, light railway, tramway, road transport, water transport, canal, inland navigation, dock, harbour, pier or lighthouse undertaking, or any undertaking for the supply of hydraulic power;
 - (b) a relevant airport operator (within the meaning of Part V of the Airports Act 1986);
 - (c) the holder of a licence under Section 6 of the Electricity Act 1989;
 - (d) a public gas transporter;
 - (e) the holder of a licence under Section 7 of the Telecommunications Act 1984 to whom the telecommunications code (within the meaning of that Act) is applied;
 - (f) a water or sewerage undertaker;
 - (g) the Civil Aviation Authority or a body acting on behalf of that Authority;

(h) the Post Office.

[Applications for consent under the Order

6. This article omitted by Regulation 4(a) of The Town and Country Planning (Trees) (Amendment) (England) Regulations 2008.]

Application of provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990

7. (1) The provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 relating to registers, applications, permissions and appeals mentioned in column (1) of Part I of Schedule 2 to this Order shall have effect, in relation to consents under this Order and applications for such consent, subject to the adaptations and modifications mentioned in column (2).
- (2) The provisions referred to in paragraph (1), as so adapted and modified, are set out in Part II of that Schedule.

Directions as to replanting

8. (1) Where consent is granted under this Order for the felling in the course of forestry operations of any part of a woodland area, the authority may give to the owner of the land on which that part is situated ("the relevant land") a direction in writing specifying the manner in which and the time within which he shall replant the relevant land.
- (2) Where a direction is given under paragraph (1) and trees on the relevant land are felled (pursuant to the consent), the owner of that land shall replant it in accordance with the direction.
- (3) A direction under paragraph (1) may include requirements as to:-
- (a) species;
 - (b) number of trees per hectare;
 - (c) the preparation of the relevant land prior to the replanting; and
 - (d) the erection of fencing necessary for the protection of the newly planted trees.

Compensation

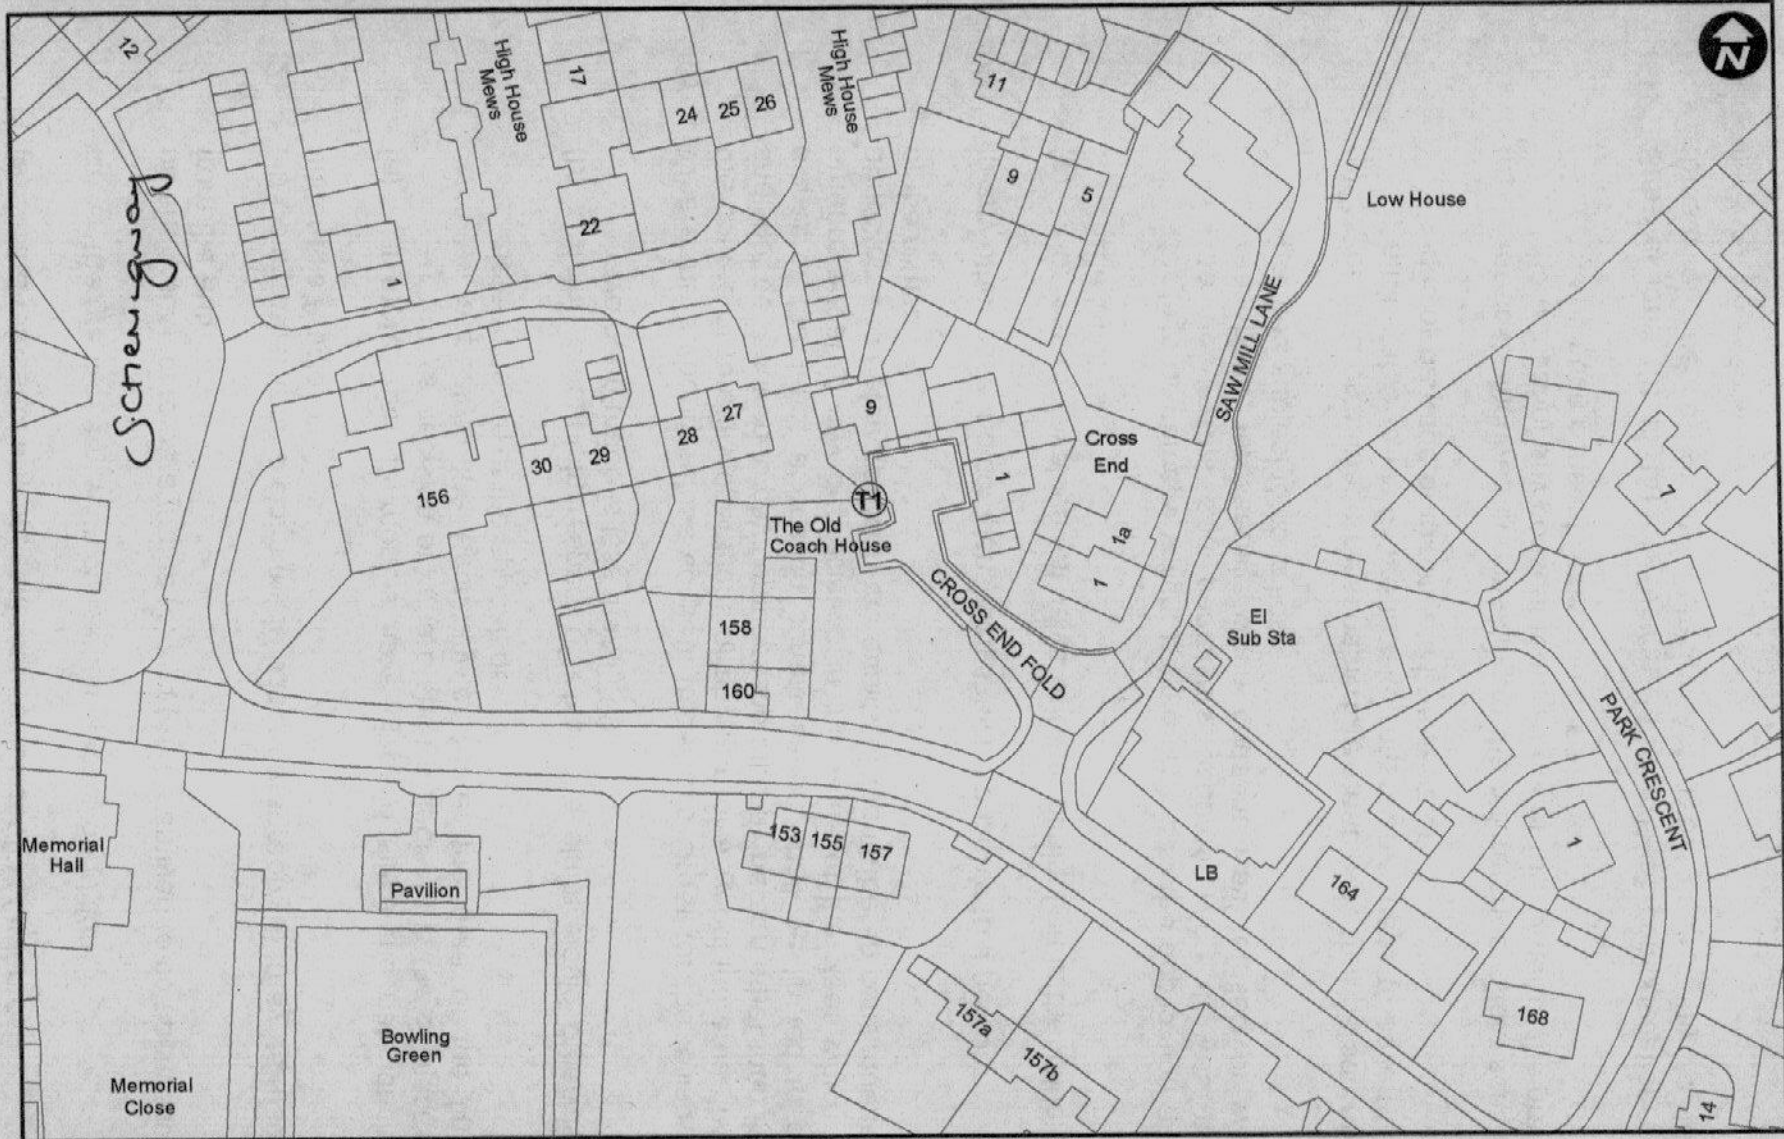

9. (1) If, on a claim under this article, a person establishes that loss or damage has been caused or incurred in consequence of:-

- (a) the refusal of any consent required under this Order; or
- (b) the grant of any such consent subject to condition

he shall, subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), be entitled to compensation from the authority.

- (2) No claim, other than a claim made under paragraph (3), may be made under this Article:-
 - (a) if more than 12 months have elapsed since the date of the authority's decision or, where such a decision is the Subject of an appeal to the Secretary of State, the date of the final determination of the appeal; or
 - (b) if the amount in respect of which the claim would otherwise have been made is less than £500.
- (3) Where the authority refuse consent under this Order for the felling in the course of forestry operations of any part of a woodland area, they shall not be required to pay compensation to any person other than the owner of the land; and such compensation shall be limited to an amount equal to any depreciation in the value of the trees which is attributable to deterioration in the quality of the timber in consequence of the refusal.
- (4) In any other case, no compensation shall be payable to a person:-
 - (a) for loss of development value or other diminution in the value of the land;
 - (b) for loss or damage which, having regard to the application and the documents and particulars accompanying it, was not reasonably foreseeable when consent was refused or was granted subject to conditions;
 - (c) for loss or damage reasonably foreseeable by that person and attributable to his failure to take reasonable steps to advert the loss or damage or to mitigate its extent; or
 - (d) for costs incurred in appealing to the Secretary of State against the refusal of any consent required under this Order or the grant of any such consent Subject to conditions.
- (5) Sub-Sections (3) to (5) of Section 11 (terms of compensation on refusal of licence) of the Forestry Act 1967 shall apply to the assessment of compensation under paragraph (3) as it applies to the assessment of compensation where a felling licence is refused under Section 10 (application for felling licence and decision of Commissioners thereon) of that Act as if for any reference to a felling licence there were Substituted a reference to a consent required under this Order and for the reference to the Commissioners there were Substituted a reference to the authority.

(6) In this article:-

"development value" means an increase in value attributable to the prospect of development; and, in relation to any land, the development of it shall include the clearing of it; and

"owner" has the meaning given to it by Section 34 of the Forestry Act 1967.

PART II

PROVISIONS OF THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990, AS ADAPTED AND MODIFIED BY PART I

The following provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, as adapted and modified by Part I of this Schedule, apply in relation to consents, and applications for consent, under this Order.

Section 69

- (1) Every local planning authority shall keep a register containing information with respect to matters relevant to tree preservation orders made by the authority.
- (2) The register shall contain, as regards each such order:-
 - (a) details of every application under the order and of the authority's decision (if any) in relation to each such application, and
 - (b) a statement as to the Subject matter of every appeal under the order and of the date and nature of the Secretary of State's determination of it.

- (5) Every register kept under this Section shall be available for inspection by the public at all reasonable hours.

Section 70

- (1) Subject to Sub-Sections (1A) and (1B), where an application is made to the authority for consent under a tree preservation order:-

- (a) they may grant consent under the order, either unconditionally or Subject to such conditions as they think fit (including conditions limiting the duration of the consent of requiring the replacement of trees); or
 - (b) they may refuse consent under the order.
- (1A) Where an application relates to an area of woodland, the authority shall grant consent so far as accords with the practice of good forestry, unless they are satisfied that the granting of consent would fail to secure the maintenance of the special character of the woodland or the woodland character of the area.
- (1B) Where the authority grant consent for the felling of trees in a woodland area they shall not impose conditions requiring replacement where such felling is carried out in the course of forestry operations (but may give directions for securing replanting).

Section 75

Any grant of consent under a tree preservation order shall (except in so as consent otherwise provides) ensure for the benefit of the land to which the order relates and of all persons for the time being interested in it.

Section 78

- (1) Where the authority:-
- (a) refuse an application for consent under a tree preservation order or grant it Subject to conditions;
 - (b) refuse an application for any consent, agreement or approval of that authority required by a condition imposed on a grant of consent under such an order or grant it Subject to conditions;
 - (c) give a direction under a tree preservation order, or refuse an application for any consent, agreement or approval of that authority required by such a direction; or
 - (d) fail to determine any such application as is referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) within the period of 8 weeks beginning with the date on which the application was received by the authority, the applicant may by notice appeal to the Secretary of State.

- (3) Any appeal under this Section shall be made by notice in writing addressed to the Secretary of State, specifying the grounds on which the appeal is made; and such notice shall be served:-
 - (a) in respect of a matter mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of Sub-Section (1), within the period of 28 days from the receipt of notification of the authority's decision or direction or within such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow;
 - (b) in respect of such a failure as is mentioned in paragraph (d) of that Sub-Section, at any time after the expiration of the period mentioned in that paragraph, but if the authority have informed the applicant that the application has been refused, or granted Subject to conditions, before an appeal has been made, an appeal may only be made against that refusal or grant.
 - (4) The appellant shall serve on the authority a copy of the notice mentioned in Sub-Section (3).
 - (5) For the purposes of the application of Section 79(1), in relation to an appeal made under Sub-Section (1)(d), it shall be assumed that the authority decided to refuse the application in question.

Section 79

- (1) On an appeal under Section 78 the Secretary of State may:-
 - (a) allow or dismiss the appeal, or
 - (b) reverse or vary any part of the decision of the authority (whether the appeal relates to that part of it or not),and may deal with the application as if it had been made to him in the first instance.
 - (2) Before determining an appeal under Section 78 the Secretary of State shall, if either the appellant or the authority so wish, give each of them an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose.

- (4) Subject to Sub-Section (2), the provisions of Section 70(1), (1A) and (1B) shall apply, with any necessary modifications, in relation to an appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78 as they apply in relation to an application for consent under a tree preservation order which falls to be determined by the authority.
- (5) The decision of the Secretary of State on such an appeal shall be final.

- (7) Schedule 6 applies to appeals under Section 78.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Conservation Area: Addingham (28)
The Old Coach House High House Mews Addingham West Yorkshire LS29 0SJ

Thank you for your notice of intent to carry out tree works at the above address, it is acceptable to carry out the following works:

- T1 - Sycamore - Crown thin evenly by a max of 10% and deadwood.
- T2 - Eucalyptus - Fell and grind out stump
- A3 - Silver Birch - Fell two that are most suppressed and grind out stumps
- C1/4 - Conifers - Fell and grind out stumps

1. Crown thinning must involve the removal of secondary lateral growth only at the outer extent of the crown spread and no wound should exceed 30 millimetres in diameter.

Reason: Thinning % To maintain the character of the tree and to minimise the stress and subsequent reaction growth whilst adhering to good Arboricultural practice.

2. It is essential in carrying out this work that the height, shape and character of the tree/s are retained.

Reason: Arboricultural - To maintain the shape and character of the tree/s and to adhere to good Arboricultural practice.
