

Suggested Websites:

City Park Website – Main Resource for information on the City Park

Caught on Webcam - View time lapse images of the City Park development www.bradford.gov.uk/citypark

Tourism

<http://www.visitbradford.com>

Regeneration in the City

www.investinbradford.com

http://bradfordeconomy.com/facts_and_figures

Westfield development

<http://uk.westfield.com/bradford/leasing/flythrough.html>

This page holds a lot of videos where you can view the Picture a City Film. Please note: The website is slightly outdated but currently holds a wealth of information.

<http://www.bradfordnewcity.com/default.asp?Page=50>

Views and Opinions

http://www.bradford.gov.uk/bmdc/life_in_the_community/city_park/

Learning Resources

Bradford Industrial Revolution – A mini-tour of historical images of Bradford – CH Woods www.mylearning.org

Suggested Field trip Ideas

Bradford Industrial Museum –Textile Industry, Printing Presses, Transport

Bradford 1 Gallery – Exhibitions and Studio

Connecting with Our City – Bovered 'bout Bradford Image

KS2/3 1-2 hours Max group size 30 Cost: £80.00

This workshop encourages pupils to think about their city, what it has to offer, its history and its architectural legacy. Using a range of materials students will draw from the Studio window capturing the life of the city. Clip boards and digital cameras are also available for outside use.

28 May - 22 August 2010

Focus on Bradford, Where???

An exhibition celebrating the work of one of Bradford's best known photographers – C. H. Wood. Following on the success of North in Focus, Focus on Bradford features black and white and colour images from C.H. Wood (Bradford) Ltd. The exhibition documents the changes in Bradford and the surrounding area in the second half of the 20th century, from the 1950s to the 1990s. It will also include images of famous people in Bradford and events during this period.

www.bradfordmuseums.org

National Media Museum –Media Studies

www.nationalmediamuseum.org.uk

With seven galleries focusing on photography, television, animation, light and IMAX film technology – and a changing programme of special exhibitions – the National Media Museum has a wide range of learning opportunities.

Bradford is the world's first City of Film

www.bradford-city-of-film.com

This follows the city's designation as the World's first UNESCO City of Film in June 2009. Live coverage (1.65MB) of the launch is available as a podcast on the BCB Radio website. You can also see the presentation screened at the press launch on June 15th. Learn about the heritage of film making in Bradford and how students can get involved and learn about filming

Primary and Secondary links

Community Cohesion – Case Studies courtesy of Schools Linking Network

www.schoolslinkingnetwork.org.uk

www.standards.dfes.gov.uk

www.qcda.gov.uk

Diplomas

Edexcel have all the Diplomas listed on one page which then takes you to the Specifications; weighty tomes of over 300 pages and the Structure of Principal Learning, a user friendly one page précis

<http://www.edexcel.com/quals/diploma/Pages/default.aspx>

Diploma Guides are available free from Teacher net publications

<http://publications.teachernet.gov.uk/>

Built environment – as a learning tool

www.bradfordeducation.com

Engaging Places

Engaging Places is a resource to support teaching and learning through buildings and places. Engaging Places is an initiative supported by the Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment (CABE) and English Heritage. Find out more at:

<http://www.engagingplaces.org.uk>

<http://www.cabe.org.uk/teachers>

<http://www.visionmapper.org.uk/>

<http://www.engagingplaces.org.uk/teaching+resources/art74944>

<http://www.imagineschooldesign.org/>