

BRADFORD MUSIC WEEK

A feast of live music, seminars, films and events showcasing the best of the city's music scene alongside national breaking acts.

From Monday 26 May to Sunday 1 June the city will come alive with music-related activities – featuring some of the very best breaking local and national indie, rock and pop acts, breakdancing, intimate acoustic sets, exhibitions, a record fair, drumming workshop and seminars about how to break into the music industry.

Highlights include:

- Ash performing an exclusive date for Bradford Music Week
- Lightspeed Champion headlining the BD1 Live gig at St George's Hall
- The PM Lounge in Shipley playing host to Palladium
- The Hop - featuring an eclectic mix of 24 buzz bands in two venues in one day
- 100 drummers – everyone can take part in this huge jam session in Centenary Square
- Young Guns – bringing the week to a close with thrilling breakdancing and DJ set at the Alhambra Studio – not to be missed
