Some Useful Sources:

Yorkshire Parish Registers

(Vol. 1: C of E)
 Colin Blanshard Withers, 1998
 (1st ed.) Y 929.3 WIT

Gives details of Parishes and Chapelries throughout Yorkshire, including where to find original registers, plus transcripts and indexes if known. Also indicates which registers are covered in the IGI (International Genealogical Index). No listings for non-conformist registers.

Phillimore Atlas and Index of Parish Registers

Cecil R. Humphery-Smith, 2003
 (3rd ed.) H 929.341 HUM

The atlas features indexed county 'parish' maps, showing pre-1832 parochial borders. Together with topographical maps of the time, detailing landmarks and roads, these are useful in locating parish registers for family history research. Details on where original records are held, including nonconformist registers at the National Archives. Lists IGI coverage.

Genealogical Gazetteer of England

Frank Smith, 1968 H 929.3 SMI

List of parishes in England, providing details such as date of commencement of parish, county name, nearest large town or city, and population in 1831. Useful for finding archaic or relatively minor place names, and for establishing parochial boundaries. Information drawn from Samuel Lewis' Topographical Dictionary of England, 1831. Includes nonconformist groups.
