Thank you for your letter dated 2nd August 2016 concerning the above mentioned development plan examination.

I am writing to confirm that the Environment Agency does not wish to submit any further statement at this stage. The Environment Agency has no issues to raise in relation to the legal compliance or soundness of the plan.

In so far as the Environment Agency's remit is concerned it is considered that there are no outstanding strategic issues raised by the DPD that necessitate attention under the duty to co-operate.
