I am an English Romany Gypsy who, along with a large number of my family members, has been forced to go road side due to an insufficient number of pitches and sites in the Bradford district. I was not interviewed in for the accommodation need assessment prepared by Arc4 but am sure I am my family constitute a significant number of people wanted pitches on a site. Given the opportunity I could fill a site tomorrow. The fact there are empty pitches on Esholt site should not be used a reason not to provide additional pitches. Many people who have lived on Esholt site for decades have been forced off due to intimidation from a family who are being monitored by the Police and some of family are subject to international arrest warrants.

I support the need for additional pitches but due to the fact I was not interviewed and my needs not taken in to account, the true need is probably much more than 39 pitches.
