PROOF OF RIGHT TO WORK IN THE UK LIST OF ACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTATION

To comply with the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996 (as amended at 1 May 2004), before you obtain a licence to work as a private hire or hackney carriage driver, you must supply original documentation proving that you have a right to work in the United Kingdom (UK).

If the applicant can produce a satisfactory document from List A, eligibility to work in the UK will have been established and will not need to be checked again. If the applicant produces a document from List B, a follow up check will be required.

If an application is made after a licence has expired then proof of a person's right to work in the UK will be required again.

List A

Please Note:

If a document in the List of Valid Identity Documents is:

- denoted with * - it should be less than three months old
- denoted with  - it should be issued within the past 12 months
- not denoted - it can be more than 12 months old

Route One

Can the applicant produce a Group 1 document? If yes, then the applicant must produce 3 documents:

- 1 document from Group 1 (refer to list of valid identity documents) and
- 2 further documents from Group 1 or 2; one of which must verify their current address

NOTE – Non-UK/Non-EEA Nationals:

All Non-UK/Non-EEA Nationals should be validated via Route One by supplying the following combination of documents:

- Current Passport; and
- Biometric Residence Permit OR Work Permit/Visa (UK);and
- 1 further document from Group 2a or 2b (refer to list of valid identity documents), which verifies their current address.

If the applicant has satisfied this route, then the document check is complete. If the applicant cannot produce a Group 1 document then go to Route Two.

Route Two

The applicant must produce:

- 3 documents from Group 2 comprising of;
 1. 1 document from Group 2a; and
 2. 2 further documents from Group 2a or 2b; one of which must verify their current address

And

- The organisation conducting the ID check will then need to ensure an external ID validation service is used to check the applicant against their records to establish the applicants name and living history footprint.

If the applicant fails the external validation check, they will need to go for fingerprinting. This may add delay into the overall application process.

Route Three

ALL Registered Bodies must have exhausted Route One and should have endeavoured to have accessed an external validation (Route Two) before you consider processing them via Route Three.

If the applicant cannot meet the requirements of Route One or Two, you should have a discussion with them to establish why they could not meet these requirements and whether there has been a recent or previous change of name that has not been declared.

For Route Three, the applicant must produce:

- A certified copy of a UK birth certificate; and
- 4 further documents from Group 2 comprising of:
 1. 1 document from Group 2a; and

2. 3 further documents from Group 2a or 2b; one of which must verify their current address

If the applicant fails to produce the required document set at Route Three, they will need to go for fingerprinting. This may add delay into the overall application process.

All copies of UK birth certificates state 'certified copy' when issued by the General Records Office.
