Domestic Homicide Review – “Daisy”

Thank you for submitting a revised Overview Report, Executive Summary and Action Plan together with a covering letter for consideration. The Quality Assurance Panel was grateful to you for relaying their feedback to the Chair of the review and noted the delays this presented as well as the additional delays in obtaining sign off through local governance processes.

The Panel is aware that reviews can be challenging, complex and time consuming and appreciates the engagement of practitioners, agencies and specialists in the review process. The Panel was grateful for your covering letter which they found helpful in setting out the amendments that were made to the report. The Panel also welcomed the important additional information you kindly provided in relation to some of the other observations they made. The Panel has carefully examined the revised report and is satisfied that it is now a more balanced, neutral and concise review. The Panel is satisfied that all matters have now been addressed and is content for the report to be published. It would be helpful if you could provide us with the web link to the report by emailing us at: DHREnquiries@homeoffice.gsi.gov.uk.

On behalf of the Panel, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and other colleagues for the considerable work that you have put into this particular review.

Yours sincerely

Hannah Buckley

Acting Chair of the Home Office DHR Quality Assurance Panel
