

	Is a Regularisation Certificate Application suitable?	Regulation	Is this applicable? Yes or No
1	Was the unauthorised building work before the 11th November 1985? Any building work carried out before 11th November 1985 is not eligible to be regularised.	18(1)
2	Is the building work etc., in relation to higher- risk building work? A regularisation certificate application given to the local authority is not appropriate in these circumstances. Regularisation certificate applications for building work to higher-risk buildings can be made here .	2B
3	Has any part of the work described in an initial notice been carried out and the initial notice has ceased to be in force? If so, Regulation 22 of The Building (Registered Building Control Approvers etc.) (England) Regulations 2024 (local authority powers in relation to partly completed work) applies. Compliance should be with the requirements of that regulation and a building regularisation certificate application is not appropriate.	12(7) 22 - The Building (Registered Building Control Approvers etc.) (England) Regulations 2024
4	Is the proposed work to an exempt building or exempt work? An application for a regularisation certificate is not appropriate in these circumstances.	9 Schedule 2
5	Has the building work been carried out under a self-certification scheme or third-party certification scheme exempt from the requirement to notify the local authority? An application for a regularisation certificate is not necessary in these circumstances.	20 20A Schedule 3 Schedule 3A
6	Is the description of the work such where no requirement to notify the local authority? An application for a regularisation certificate is not necessary in these circumstances.	12(6)(b) Schedule 4

Safety Regulator. Where the response is 'yes' to any other row, the application for a regularisation certificate is not appropriate.
