City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council

NOTICE OF DESIGNATION OF CONSERVATION AREA

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDING AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990 SECTION 69

CITY OF BRADFORD METROPOLITAN DISTRICT COUNCIL APSLEY CRESCENT CONSERVATION AREA

Notice is given under the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act section 69 that City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council ("the Council") have reviewed the above-named conservation area, designated on 8 September 1975 and determined that the boundary of the conservation area should be amended. Accordingly the Council have determined that the conservation area should be re-designated and that the area described in the Schedule to this notice should be regarded as an area of special architectural or historic interest the character of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance. The effect of the re-designation of the conservation area is as follows: 1. Conservation area consent will now be required for the demolition of all unlisted buildings (other than excepted buildings) in the area; 2. Planning applications for development which would in the opinion of the local planning authority affect the character or appearance of the conservation area must be given publicity and representations received as a result of the publicity must be taken into account in determining the application; 3. It becomes an offence subject to certain exceptions to cut down, top, lop, uproot, wilfully damage or wilfully destroy any tree in the area except with the consent of the local planning authority; 4. The local planning authority are now under a duty to formulate and publish proposals for the preservation and enhancement of the area. A map of the conservation area as re-designated may be inspected, free of charge, during normal office hours at the Area Planning Office, Jacobs Well, Bradford and at the Bradford Central Library, Manningham Library, Carlisle Road Manningham and The Manningham Customer Service Centre, Carlisle Road, Manningham, Bradford. Schedule The Apsley Conservation Area Apsley Crescent conservation area is located within the wider area of Manningham to the north of Bradford city centre. It encapsulates an area of mostly Victorian residential development including terraced and semi-detached houses along with a number of large villa properties. The northern boundary of the conservation area is provided by Queens Road and Marlborough Road with Lumb Lane forming the line of much of the western boundary. The area briefly extends westwards of this road to include the site of the former Grosvenor Community Centre and buildings at the northern end of Lumb Lane. The area extends southwards to include the residential streets of Apsley Crescent, Wilmer Villas, Mornington Villas and Grosvenor Road. The southern boundary of the conservation area is provided by Drill Parade and Belle Vue Primary School. Manningham Lane forms part of the eastern boundary of the conservation area which then runs along Clifton Villas to include the house and grounds of Rosemount. Interim Head of Legal Services, Department of Legal and Democratic Services. City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council, City Hall, Bradford BD1 1HY. 27 October 2006.
