City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council

NOTICE OF DESIGNATION OF CONSERVATION AREA

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDING AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990, SECTION 69

BRUNTHWAITE CONSERVATION AREA

Notice is given under the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act, section 69 that City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council (“the Council”) have reviewed the above-named conservation area, designated on 5 September 1977, and determined that the boundary of the conservation area should be amended. Accordingly the Council have determined that the conservation area should be re-designated and that the area described in the Schedule to this notice should be regarded as an area of special architectural or historic interest the character of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance. The effect of the re-designation of the conservation area is as follows: 1. Conservation area consent will now be required for the demolition of all unlisted buildings (other than excepted buildings) in the area; 2. Planning applications for development which would in the opinion of the local planning authority affect the character or appearance of the conservation area must be given publicity and representations received as a result of the publicity must be taken into account in determining the application; 3. It becomes an offence subject to certain exceptions to cut down, top, lop, uproot, wilfully damage or wilfully destroy any tree in the area except with the consent of the local planning authority; 4. The local planning authority are now under a duty to formulate and publish proposals for the preservation and enhancement of the area. A map of the conservation area as re-designated may be inspected, free of charge, during normal office hours at the Area Planning Office, Keighley Town Hall and at the Keighley Library, North Street, Keighley. G A Danby, Barrister Legal and Democratic Services Director City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council, City Hall, Bradford BD1 1HY. Schedule The Brunthwaite Conservation Area The Brunthwaite Conservation Area encompasses the whole of the agricultural hamlet to the east of Hawber Lane where a small area of “green” introduces the Conservation Area. The historic development is concentrated along Brunthwaite Lane with key buildings such as Ashfield Farm and Sycamore Farm. The Cottages and The Terrace are located to the east of the Conservation Area where the boundary is drawn to include Brunthwaite Beck which is an important natural feature in the Conservation Area. To the north and south, the boundary includes a number of fields that contribute to the character and setting of Brunthwaite. 5 May 2006.
