

such action as may be available to them to secure the preservation of the character and the general improvement of the area.

The Conservation Area is defined on a plan which may be inspected free of charge during normal office hours at the office of the County Planning Officer, Raines House, Denby Dale Road, Wakefield, at the office of the Area Planning Officer, North Eastern Chambers, Station Parade, Harrogate or at the office of the Town Clerk of Harrogate at the Municipal Offices, Harrogate.—Dated 28th July 1973.

P. Butcher, Clerk of the County Council

County Hall,
Wakefield.

(51)

THE SCHEDULE

Harrogate Municipal Borough

Conservation Area No. 2, High Harrogate

The Conservation Area is centred on High Harrogate and generally includes Christ Church Square and properties fronting High Harrogate Stray.

The southern boundary of the Conservation Area runs along Knaresborough Road from its junction with Queen Parade to the west, to its junction with Willaston Road to the east. From the Knaresborough Road/Queen Parade junction the boundary runs northwards along Queen Parade, eastwards along North Park Road to the western boundary of No. 25 North Park Road, and then northwards again to pass to the west of Park Place along the southern and western boundaries of the Nursery Garden, continuing northwards to the junction of Kingsway and Walkers Passage. The boundary then runs eastwards along the southern boundary of properties on the south side of The Grove and Park Close, and turns northwards to run parallel to and to the west of Regent Parade at an average depth of 35 metres as far as No. 35 Regent Parade. The boundary crosses Skipton Road and turns eastwards to run along the rear of properties in Devonshire Place at an average depth of 35 metres as far as Claro Road, then northwards and eastwards along the southern boundary of the County Ground, eastwards and southwards along the northern and eastern boundary of the Granby Hotel, eastwards to include Granby Bungalow and Nos 1 and 3 Silverfields Road, and then along Roseville Avenue and Willaston Road to its junction with Knaresborough Road.

WEST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Conservation Area at Little London

Notice is hereby given that the West Riding County Council as Local Planning Authority, after consultation with the Aireborough Urban District Council have designated the area referred to in the Schedule to this notice as a Conservation Area for the purposes of Section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971. The County Council consider the designated area to be one of special architectural and historic interest the character and appearance of which should be the subject of stringent control of development and the County Council intend to take such action as may be available to them to secure the preservation and general improvement of the area.

The Conservation Area is more particularly defined on the map, which may be inspected free of charge during normal office hours at the Office of the County Planning Officer, Raines House, Denby Dale Road, Wakefield, at the office of the Area Planning Officer, North Eastern Chambers, Station Parade, Harrogate or at the Offices of the Clerk to Aireborough Urban District Council, Micklefield House, Rawdon, Near Leeds.—Dated 27th July 1973.

P. Butcher, Clerk of the County Council

County Hall,
Wakefield.

(52)

THE SCHEDULE

Aireborough Urban District Council

The Conservation Area at Little London, Rawdon, is a small settlement consisting primarily of early nineteenth century housing in the form of terraces and cottages.

From the North West corner of the Conservation Area, the boundary proceeds east from Apperley Lane to include Apperley Mount then north and east to the western boundary of Field No. O.S.5076 and south along this boundary. Crossing White Lands, the line runs south and then east across the rear of properties fronting White Lands then south and east across Salisbury Street to the western boundary of Micklefield Park where it turns south. The boundary then follows Micklefield Lane eastwards to include properties on the east side of Buckstone Drive and then runs west parallel to and approximately 100 feet from Micklefield Lane, turning south to include Cragg Baptist Church and Sunday School, and then south west to the rear of properties fronting Springwood Road. The boundary continues south east to include Beech Cottage, then south west to Apperley Lane and then north along Apperley Lane to Apperley Mount.

WEST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Conservation Area at Yeadon

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of the West Riding of Yorkshire as Local Planning Authority, after consultation with the Aireborough Urban District Council have designated the area referred to in the Schedule to this notice as a Conservation Area in accordance with Section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971. The area is one which the County Council consider to be an area of special architectural or historic interest the character and appearance of which should be preserved or enhanced, and will be the subject of stringent control of development. The County Council intend to take such action as may be available to them to secure the preservation of the character and the general improvement of the area.

The Conservation Area is defined on a plan which may be inspected free of charge during normal office hours at the office of the County Planning Officer, Raines House, Denby Dale Road, Wakefield, at the office of the Area Planning Officer, North Eastern Chambers, Station Parade, Harrogate or at the office of the Clerk to Aireborough Urban District Council, Micklefield House, Rawdon, Nr. Leeds.—Dated 27th July 1973.

P. Butcher, Clerk of the County Council

County Hall,
Wakefield.

(53)

THE SCHEDULE

Aireborough Urban District Council

The area designated as a Conservation Area is the old village centre now the shopping area of Yeadon. It includes the Town Hall Square and the interesting street pattern around it.

The northern limit of the Conservation Area is formed by Haworth Lane and the boundary then runs south along Chapel Lane and then east along the rear boundaries of properties fronting High Street. The boundary turns south just before the junction of High Street with Cemetery Road, crosses High Street and then returns west parallel to and approximately 120 feet from High Street. The boundary line turns south to include the grounds of Cliffe House, then south-west and west across South View Road to include the burial ground. The line turns north and west around the boundary of Lanefax Court, then south along Ivegate to the junction with Well Hill. It then follows Well Hill, northwards turning west to Well Lane to include the Robin Hood Hotel. The boundary runs north for a short distance along Well Lane, then west and north to include the Temperance Hall, east along Kirk Lane and then north along Haworth Lane.

WEST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

Borough of Harrogate

Conservation Area No. 1—Low Harrogate

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of the West Riding of Yorkshire as Local Planning Authority, after consultation with the Harrogate Municipal Borough Council have designated the area referred to in the Schedule to this notice as a Conservation Area in accordance with